AN OVERVIEW OF BELMOND SAFARIS

Belmond owns and operates three luxury safari lodges in what is regarded as Africa's ultimate safari destination – Botswana. The luxury tented safari lodges - Belmond Eagle Island Lodge, Belmond Khwai River Lodge and Belmond Savute Elephant Lodge are located in the unspoilt and remote Northern Botswana wilderness, each in a completely different ecosystem.

Together they offer a complete and a truly diverse safari experience that will delight the most seasoned travellers.

Belmond Eagle Island Lodge has recently reopened as the ultimate Okavango Delta water-and experience-focused safari lodge, unveiling a sleek new look after an almost total rebuild. Design highlights in the tented rooms include spacious outdoor decks with vistas over the Delta, private plunge pools, indoor and outdoor showers, a reading nook and walk-in wardrobes. Belmond Eagle Island Lodge offers a variety of water-focused safaris: by motorboat, barge cruise or mekoro (a local canoe), and an air safari by helicopter.

Belmond Khwai River Lodge is nestled on the edge of a leadwood and fig tree forest, overlooking the vast Khwai River floodplains and beyond into the Moremi Wildlife Reserve. As a year round destination for wildlife, predators can regularly be seen in the area, rated as one of the most prolific in Botswana. Regular visitors are elephant, buffalo, lion, leopard, cheetah and wild dogs.

Belmond Savute Elephant Lodge lies in the heart of the Chobe National Park. Sometimes referred to as the elephant capital of the world, Savute has high concentrations of elephant and lions. Prides up to forty strong have been spotted. The Savute Channel, one of the greatest mysteries and fascinations of Northern Botswana – sometimes dry, sometimes flowing, runs past the lodge.
